Hi Andy

Further to our chat, just wanted to say the band were fantastic!

They worked really hard – and not only got the audience on the dance floor but kept them there – no easy feat let me tell you! Please pass on my heart-felt thanks to them for helping making the night a huge success. We will definitely use them again in future events.

Kind regards

As usual the band was great and had a lot of people up dancing. They're just a really great group of people, very professional and flexible when it comes to timing, which is great for us!

Hi Andy,

Just a quick note to say the band were fabulous! The dance floor wasn't big enough – always a good sign. Kept it up beat and perfect tempo and volume all night – I thanked them but please pass on my thanks again.

Hi Andy,

Sadly I'm back at work now after a couple of weeks off for the wedding and honeymoon. Superstitious were great. Everyone at the wedding thought they were fantastic and definitely a highlight of the night. Thanks to Richard and in particular you for your help with it all. In fact I've passed your details on to a friend of ours that was at the wedding and loved Superstitious, as another friend of hers is looking for a good band for her wedding. I'll be sure to recommend Superstitious and give your details to anyone else seeking a band for functions in future

OMG they were AMAZING. Everybody loved them!!!!

Hi Andy,

The wrap-up from the weekend has been great! The party was a huge success with a rocking dance floor later on in the evening.

The band were fantastic, very professional and adaptable. They came on for the first set and I had complaints from some of the older crowd as they thought it too loud. The band happily cut that set early when requested and came back at 9 to a more willing crowd, ready to dance.

Please thank them all for me especially Richard who was great to deal with. Thanks Andy next time we have a gig I will keep you and your bands in mind.

Kind regards,

Dear Andy,

The night went very well and on behalf of the Liverpool Hospital Ball Committee I would like to extend our sincere thanks to yourself and the band of Superstitious. It has been great working with you all and you have been thoroughly professional and a delight to coordinate things with.

The band played brilliantly and engaged the crowd all night. I have personally been hearing about howw great the night was and the positive feedback always mentions how great the band was.

Richard was wonderful in organising the roaming mike and speakers at such late notice and the band also helped sort out our own pre recorded music dramas. I cannot praise their professionalism or positive attitude enough.

We would have no hesitation in utilising your or the band's service again when we next hold an event and will recommend yourself and the band at every opportunity.

Thanks again for making our event such a success and please pass on our gratitude to the band members.

Warm regards,

Myra

Hi Andy

Thank so much for a wonderful night!

The band were super professional and a delight to watch performing live. We had planned with the band for our daughter Marnie to get up to sing a song for her Dad's 50th. The guys were so patient and helpful as we did a sound check and she got the hang of singing live with a band (which she has never done before!). That really made the night and it was great of the band to give her that moment. There was not a dry eye in the house.

What a memorable night, as evident with the many people who commented on the fantastic band and wonderful music.

I enclose a photo of Marnie on stage and thank you delivering us such a fantastic event!

Kate Goulston

Yeah our Christmas party was fun and the band went down really well, they are a nice bunch of people which is also good. Our numbers were lower than we thought but that's a whole separate issue.

Thanks for your help in booking them, we'll be sure to come back to you next year when we know our theme & venue.

Thanks,

Hi Andy,

I just wanted to pass on our thanks to the Superstitious guys – they really set the tone for the evening and had everyone boogying on the dance floor with more enthusiasm than I could have hoped for! It was a really great night and was made all the more special by having such a terrific group play for us.

I will definitely be in touch for future events!
